—Local Y. M. C. A. boys will meet at the association hall Saturday evening, when it is expected former County Secretary Lanham, who comes for the county leaders' conference to be held during the day, will be present with some of his good stories and a talk.

—Rev. F. W. Hass attended the Wooster District conference held this week Wednesday and Thursday at Creston. The Wooster district embraces the territory of fifty pastors extending from Columbia, Lorain Co., to Trinway, Muskingum Co., and is under the leadership of Dr. W. B. Slutz of Wooster.

—The management of the Princess theater has generously tendered one-half of the proceeds from its door receipts to-night (Friday) for the benefit of the Christian church, which suffered a heavy loss by fire last Saturday night. This is a commendable act of the theater management and it is hoped that our people will do its part by as many attending the show tonight as possible.

—The body of the late Mrs. Margaret May Kern, who died recently at her home in Detroit, was brought to Medina Monday and interred in Spring Grove cemetery. The deceased was a daughter of our fellow townsman, Wm. Frazier, and well-known here, where she was reared and educated. She was married about two years ago, and with her husband has resided in Detroit ever since. The deceased was 25 years of age.

—Last Friday night stands out in the limelight in the way of local political activity. Attorneys Charles Wightman and F. O. Phillips of Medina and W. B. Chapman of Lafayette were the speakers and each went to the hall "loaded for bear". There was none discovered for some time, when finally a cub cinnamon was found curled up on a front seat, in the person of Editor Rowe. Each hunter took deadly aim and fired three heavy charges of verbal buckshot into the game. Although terribly lacerating the animal, none of the shot entered a vital spot and the bear loped off into the forest.

—Seville has been making extensive preparations for what they term an illuminating carnival tonight (Friday). The fun will commence at 6:30 sharp. At 7:30 there will start a grand parade of maskers, led by the local band. Several bands are advertised to take part, as well as an orchestra from Cleveland that will play for the dance, which begins at 8 o'clock. The last car for Medina will leave Seville at 12:25.

—Among the items of business at the monthly meeting of the local Y. M. C. A., board held last Tuesday evening, were the adoption of a revised constitution and the appointment of Physical, Religious, Social and Educational Committees, of which Messrs. Longacre, Root, Hart and Edmund were named as the respective chairmen. Mr. Geo. H. Rea was elected to the membership of the board.

—Local Democrats held their last meeting of the campaign last Saturday night at the court house. The room was filled with members of all the parties. Aldrich B. Underwood was the first speaker introduced and delivered himself of another of his forceful addresses. Following Mr. Underwood, Senator Potting of Akron, being discovered in the room, was called out and held the attention of the audience for half an hour. Senator Potting was followed by Dana F. Reynolds, Democratic nominee for state representative. The meeting was orderly and no unpleasant personalities indulged in.

Medina High met defeat for the second time this year when Wooster High defeated the locals Friday, Oct. 30, by the close score of 19 to 13.

Wooster scored in the first quarter, but Medina came back strong in the second quarter and shoved Bohley over the goal, tying the score at 6 each.

In the third quarter Wooster uncorked two long forward passes from each of which a touchdown was made.

In the last quarter Medina rallied strongly and scored another touchdown by a skillful mixture of skin-tackle plays and one forward pass. The locals were rushing Wooster's tired warriors off their feet for a third score when the call of time saved the visitors.

The game was well contested all the way and Medina showed her superiority, and should have been an easy victor but for repeated bad judgement of her quarter back.

A return game will be played at Wooster Nov. 20.

Saturday, Nov. 7, Medina goes to Ravenna to play the strong high school team of that town. Coach Miller is working his team hard in preparation for this game.

The Crux of the Clothes Question

You're the one to be pleased; you know what you want better than we or the neighbors do; PERSONAL SATISFACTION is the thing in clothes.

Our stock serges with suggestions for the comfort and good looks that make a man pleased with himself and pleased with his purchase.

We believe the smart, sensible styling, the staunch hand-tailoring, the sturdy wool fabrics of our Michaels-Stern and Hart Schaffner & Marx models express just the way you feel about clothes.

And the price—$10 to $25—is the fruit of our best efforts to spread our reputation as a big-value store.

"An Endless Line at the Endless Store."

OATMANS HDW.

Sheriff Young arrested Robert Spooner late Thursday afternoon on a charge of having robbed Jos. Mellert of some money and other valuables last Monday evening while in his home at Mallet Creek. Mellert claims that he had about $20 and some trinkets secreted in a pair of arctic rubbers; that headmitten Spooner and that while the latter was examining the rubbers he extracted the contents. Mellert says he went to bed as soon as Spooner was gone and suddenly happened to think of what might have happened during the inspection of the footwear.

John, the two months old son of Geo. Fernack, a Hungarian, died on Oct. 29. Burial was made in the Catholic cemetery the following day.
